ATTORNEY'S REPORT: The subject of agreements between Silver Lake Water District and individuals requesting service to property not in any LID was discussed. Mr. Phillipps expressed the opinion that such documents could be completed at the Water District office and signed before a Notary Public.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT: Cablevision, Inc. has been contacted regarding the proposed blacktopping of the road to their installation at the rear of the Water District building.
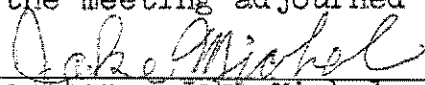

It was noted that a telephone call from the Snohomish County Review Board informed of a meeting scheduled for September 29, 1972 for attorneys of various Districts. Correspondence will be mailed to C. W. Jordan and Ken Phillipps.

A total of 4 meters were sold in August. Charges to Fircrest were $365.00 for the month of August.

It was noted that meeting time will be 7PM starting October 11th.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 8:30PM.
